..... City Notes

City Treasurer Mabel Kandler and Mrs. Linda Dove of the Municipal Finance Dept. attended a quarterly meeting last week in Annapolis of Maryland finance officers. On Monday, March 11, Mrs. Kandler also attended a county-wide meeting of municipal finance officers, where the county treasurer and the county officer in charge of data processing explained various problems concerning the gathering of tax information from data processing.

The new Centerway lights were ablaze for the first time on Friday, March 8, and the old lights and poles removed by Monday, March 11.

In Charlestowne Village the street paving contractor has made repairs to the base pavement on Lakecrest Dr. and Prince James Way. Final paving of the streets in the development is scheduled for this spring.

At Springhill Lake construction has been started on Section 9, a stretch on the west end of the development along the Capital Beltway. Although an 8-story building was originally planned for that location, the developer has now decided to build in conformity with the rest of the development.

Contradictory as it may sound, the Public Works Dept. put into operation on different days this week both the leaf vacuum machine and the snowplows. In addition, they located a short circuit in the wiring for the parking lot lighting system, set up a reviewing stand for ground-breaking ceremonies for the new library, and did preparatory work on the softball diamond at Braden Field.

Completing the project of replacement of broken curbs and gutters, they also paved the streets in front of the new gutters at the fire house and along Plateau Place and backfilled, graded, and seeded behind the new curbs at these locations and on Ridge, Hillside, and Laurel Hill.

Greenbelt Police Chief William Lane and Lt. Marshall Zoellner, as well as City Manager James K. Giese, recently attended a hearing in Annapolis, which was called by the State senators from Prince Georges County. The purpose of the hearing was to receive testimony concerning a proposal by Senator Meyer Emmanuel to establish a Safety Commission and a Safety Commissioner for Prince Georges County. Although the Greenbelt City Council has taken no position on the proposed bill, the three city officials participated in discussion, expressing their personal opinions concerning portions of the bill.

As a result of objections brought out at the hearing, Senator Emmanuel withdrew his bill. But as an effort to fill the need to which the bill itself had been addressed, county police officials agreed to organize a coordinating committee, on a voluntary basis, to handle problems of mutual concern.

Greenbelt's Crime Rate Compared to County's

"Having a local police department is paying off in more extensive law enforcement and lower crime." This is the assessment of City Manager James K. Giese, following a comparison of the city's crime and arrest rates per thousand with those for all police departments combined within Prince Georges County. Based on figures in a uniform crime report published by the State of Maryland for the period July 1 through December 31, 1967, the city's figures represent projected annual crime and arrest rates.

Except for auto theft, Greenbelt's crime rates are below county rates. According to Giese, this apparently higher incidence of auto theft probably reflects a difference in reporting procedures between the Greenbelt Police Dept. and others in the county. For example, Greenbelt's report would include unfounded reports of auto thefts, which may not have been included in the county.

On the other hand, Giese notes, arrest rates in Greenbelt — especially those relating to juveniles — are higher than county rates.

Following are the comparative crime and arrest rates per thousand and population:

Crimes	Greenbelt	Combined P.G. Co.
Murder, Non-Negligent
Manslaughter	.00	.04
Forcible Rape	.14	.25
Robbery	.41	.94
Aggravated Ass't	.82	1.28
Burglary - Breaking or Entering	6.17	10.98
Larceny
- $50 & over	3.15	4.78
Auto Theft	6.85	6.72
Arrests - All Offenses Except Traffic
Adults	12.61	12.72
Juveniles	18.23	5.50

Troop 2746 Distributing Md. Constitution Draft

On Saturday, March 16, Boy Scout Troop 2746 will distribute to homes in Greenbelt copies of the proposed new Maryland constitution. The project is headed by Pat Hanyok, under the direction of Scout Leader Albert Cousins. The copies of the constitution were made available, through the News Review, by the Constitutional Convention.

The people of Maryland will vote on the proposed constitution in a special election, set for Tuesday, May 14. If it is approved, it will become law on July 1, 1968, except for those sections for which the draft gives later dates, in order to provide gradual transition. Any voter registered for state elections may participate in that election; being registered for city elections in Greenbelt does not qualify. Residents who are not yet registered to vote, and who will be 21 or older and will have resided in the state at least a year by May 14, can register at the County Courthouse during working hours on weekdays. They may also register at special registration stands open Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. at Montgomery Ward's in Capital Plaza and in the Grand Union supermarket in Prince George's Plaza.

RAPID-READING COURSE

The Evelyn Wood Reading Dynamics Institute will offer its rapid reading program to residents of the Greenbelt area. Free public demonstrations will be held on Tuesday, March 19, at the Greenbelt City Council Building, and on Wednesday, March 27, at the Springhill Lake Community Room. Both demonstrations will begin at 8 p.m.

The actual class, lasting eight weeks, will begin on Thursday, April 4, at the Springhill Lake Community Room.

Census Takers Needed

The U. S. Bureau of the Census is in need of Census Takers to work on a household survey in this area.

Applicants should be citizens, high school graduates and able to qualify on written test. Applicants must have a car and should be reasonably skilled drivers. The rate of pay is $1.98 per hour plus 9c per mile for use of car.

About two weeks of work starting April 15 may be expected. Some evening work is required. The Census Takers will be thoroughly trained on procedures and techniques of interviewing and will be paid during the training period.

Interested and qualified persons should contact the nearest office of Maryland Dept. of Employment Security.

SOCIAL STUDIES COUNCIL

The Maryland Council for the Social Studies will hold a meeting on Saturday, March 30, from 9 a.m. to 1:15 p.m., at Elizabeth Seton High School. The speaker will be Dr. Edwin Fenton of the Carnegie Mellon University. The meeting is open for members and non-members, with a registration fee for non-members only.

Large Crowd Attends Library Ground-Breaking Ceremonies

by Elaine Skolnik

Ground was broken on Sunday, March 10, for Greenbelt's long-awaited public library. A crowd of over 120 Greenbelters, county, state and local dignitaries applauded as Gladys Noon Spellman, Chairman of the Prince Georges County Commissioners, turned over the first shovel of dirt. Charles A. Dukes, president of the Prince Georges County Library Board, wielded a second golden shovel at the library site, which is located between the main entrance to Center Elementary School and the Crescent Road underpass near Westway.

It was a happy day for Greenbelt. The ceremonies marked the culmination of years of effort on the part of many citizens of Greenbelt and of others in the county, who have long worked to provide the city with a major library facility. Mrs. Spellman said, "Prince Georges County has come a long way. People like Greenbelters and the Prince Georges County Library Board make it possible for the county to change its thinking and move forward." Pointing to new and planned library branches for other parts of the county, she noted that a major problem in the future may be staffing.

The Greenbelt library, designed by Riverdale architects Walton and Madden, will be a large and modern two-story building, 132 feet long on each side. With a 150,000 book capacity, the 35,000 square-foot facility will include reading rooms for both children and adults and a 60' x 45' meeting room equipped with a speaker's platform and a screen projection booth. A $794,000 contract for the library's construction was awarded to an Edmonston firm, Avery Construction Co., Inc. It is expected that construction will be completed in the spring of 1969.

History

The Greenbelt Library began as a city-supported facility in 1939 and joined with the Prince Georges County Memorial Library system in 1955. Although at one time it was the largest library in the county, it has been for many years in need of new facilities, to replace the classroom in Center School, with a capacity of only 14,000 books.

In 1959 the Maryland National Capital Park and Planning Commission recommended a new, enlarged Greenbelt branch, and four years later a similar recommendation appeared in a publication of the Prince Georges County Memorial Library. Citizen interest was aroused in the fall of 1963 when overcrowded conditions at Greenbelt Center School almost evicted the library, which occupies the space of two classrooms. Citizens formed a Library Association and the Greenbelt Advisory Planning Board appointed a library subcommittee under the chairmanship of Clifford Simonson.

Financing of the new library was a problem that was not settled until late 1965 when, through the efforts of the citizen groups, the county commissioners and county delegation acted to appropriate the necessary funds. At a public meeting of the Prince Georges County delegation to the Maryland Assembly on January 13, 1965, Simonson, serving as spokesman for a group of library-minded Greenbelters — Mayor Edgar L. Smith, the Rev. Kenneth Wyatt (Community Church), Leo Gerton (Greenbelt Library Association), Albert K. Herling (Prince Georges Friends of the Library Association), Gordon Allen and others — requested that planning funds for a new Greenbelt Library be included in a million-dollar library bond issue. Members of the delegation urged the county library staff to consider initiating such planning, and the proposed Greenbelt library was included in the 1966 county budget. The County Board of Education then made available land it owned adjacent to the Center School.

Ceremonies

Mayor Smith described the ground-breaking ceremonies as a "momentous occasion - for which we have waited a long time." He extended recognition to the commissioners, delegation, library board, Friends of the Library, and to those Greenbelters "who worked for so many years and worked so very hard" to make a dream come true.

Herling introduced the members of the Greenbelt Library Association—Frank Lewis, president; Charles McDonald, Helen Geller, Evelyn Simonson, Ruth Bowman, Leo Gerton and David Stern. He noted, "I think we have the reading population not only in the county but in the state." The Greenbelt library has the distinction of having the highest per-capita circulation in the area it serves. In 1963-64, this figure amounted to 5.3 books annually, higher than that of any other library in the county and well above the county's average of 3.2.

The invocation was delivered by Rabbi Maurice Weisenberg of Mishkan Torah (Jewish Community Center) and the benediction given by the Rev. Edward H. Birner of the Holy Lutheran Church.

A reception was held at the Council Chambers following the ground-breaking ceremonies. Greenbelt's 4-H clubs served refreshments prepared under the direction of 4-H leader, Mrs. Evelyn Simonson. An exhibit of Greenbelt memorabilia, including 49 photographs borrowed from the Library of Congress, was arranged by Lewis.

COUNTY BOND SALE

A $24 million bond issue to provide for school buildings, libraries, highways and initial land acquisition for a new County airport was sold by the Prince Georges Commissioners.

The bonds went at an average interest rate of 4.51 percent, described as "right on the money" in relation to average municipal bond sales on the current market. It was purchased by a combine headed by First National City Bank of New York.

The bond sale allocates $17 million for school construction, $3 million for road building and renovation, $2 million for additional library facilities and $2 million for land acquisition—the latter earmarked for a new industrial airport.

Greenbelt's New Library

Gough to Join WMATA

Councilman Gerald Gough announced this week that he was taking a position with the Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority, effective at the close of the school year. Gough is presently chairman of the Social Studies Department of High Point High School. In his new position, Gough will be concerned with the agency's relations with the Maryland State Legislature and with the county governments in Maryland.

Our Policy On Letters

We have said this many times before, but perhaps it will not hurt to say it again.

Letters to the Editor represent only the personal views of the person who signs them. Publication by the News Review of these letters indicates neither approval nor disapproval of the views expressed.

The News Review, of course, when faced with lengthy letters and limited space, will sometimes try to induce the author to accept some cutting. Otherwise, we have attempted to follow the principle that one of the most valuable services performed by your community newspaper is to provide a forum through which any person can express his unrestricted views.

It sometimes happens that in controversial issues most of the letters come from one side. Readers have complained to us that in such situations by printing all of them we have in effect endorsed the side that has written most of the letters.

We do not see how we can do otherwise. All we can ask is understanding from our readers that the editorial policy and position of the News Review is expressed through its editorials and not through the Letters to the Editor Department.

Also introduced were John Wolfgang and Regina Donn, library board members; George Hammond and Lowell Campbell, former board members; Don Cooper, Greenbelt Consumer Services; Betty Allen, Marian Slauch, Helen Parent of the Greenbelt Library and Frances Herling, former member of the staff; and councilmen Richard Pilski, Francis White and Gerald Gough.

Cadette Troop 1656

On Tuesday, Feb. 27, Girl Scout Cadette Troop 1656 held a Court of Awards, Investiture, and Rededication Ceremonies. New girls received into scouting during the evening were Cecelia Lawrence, Karen Wright, Deborah Opsasnik, Marlene Baran, and Janet Landini.

A number of girls received badges of merit for work thus far, and Patricia Rixon was awarded the only challenge award given that night, the Challenge of Social Dependability.

A look into the past events of the year found the Scouts on a hike to Greenbelt Park, on which they won their Hiker Badge. Before that they had spent a camping weekend in Virginia.

The future will find the Girl Scouts of Troop 1656 operating two cookie selling booths, one at the Co-op, the other at the Springhill Lake Giant. The girls hope for many customers for one of their five delicious varieties, sometime between March 15 and 30.

The leader of the troop is Mrs. Nawooksy, and the Assistant Leaders are Mrs. Claudia Taylor, Mrs. Roberta Bolling, and Mrs. Babe Willard.

Musical for Children

THE PIED PIPER OF HAMELIN, a musical fairy tale adapted from the poem by Robert Browning, will be presented on Saturday and Sunday, March 30 and 31, at 1:15 p.m. and 3:15 p.m. in the Tawes Fine Arts Theatre, College Park Campus.

University Theatre's second children's production of the 1967-68 season, under the direction of Miss Roberta Hughes, will feature original music and lyrics by Art Runyan. The play is the familiar legend of rat-plagued Hamelin, which is saved by the magic of a piper's music. It has been especially adapted for presentation to suit its new musical form and to make it more enjoyable for children of all ages.

There is a small admission fee, with all seats reserved. Special group rates are available. Telephone reservations and additional information may be obtained by calling the Fine Arts Box Office at 454-2201, 10:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. weekdays.

In Memory

Of my loving wife, Mable Dessie Rolph, who the Lord called to Heaven on March 9, 1967.

We who love you as it dawns another year in our lonely hearts, our thoughts of you are ever near.

HOLY CROSS LUTHERAN CHURCH

HOW FAR?

"...followed far behind". That's what Peter did the night before Christ's crucifixion. The Bible tells the story in the Gospel of Luke, chapter 22.

Every community has its share of people who follow Christ in a "far behind" fashion. They approve of the Church's objectives. They wish the church members well! Some "wouldn't think of living in an area without a church". Yet so many keep a convenient distance between themselves and the churches of the neighborhood.

To follow Christ "far behind" or "afar off" may be fatal. A person's eternal destiny depends upon a fellowship with Him. How near are you to Christ today?

Saint Peter did much better later on. Far better! The love of the Savior really got through to him.

Come! Worship! Believe! Worship with us during Lent and on each Lord's Day.

READING GETTING YOU DOWN?

We teach you Reading Skills that are guaranteed to at least triple your reading rate, improve your comprehension.

The Evelyn Wood Reading Dynamics Institute

invites you to a free demonstration of this internationally famous method. You will see an amazing documented film about Reading Dynamics and learn how it can help you to faster reading and understanding.

OVER 350,000 GRADUATES READ AN AVERAGE OF 4.7 TIMES FASTER with equal or better comprehension!

In the 18 years since Mrs. Wood made the startling discovery that led to the development of her unique method, over 350,000 people have taken this course. These are people with different educations, different IQ's . . . students, business men, housewives. All of them—even the slowest—now read an average novel in less than 2 hours. You can, too. We guarantee it.

Acclaimed by public figures

In 1962, the late President Kennedy invited Mrs. Wood to the White House where she taught the course, at his request, to members of The Cabinet and the White House Staff.

Senator Herman E. Talmadge, Georgia: "In my opinion, if these reading techniques were instituted in the public and private schools of our country, it would be the greatest single step we could take in educational progress."

Senator William Proxmire, Wisconsin: "I must say that this is one of the most useful educational experiences I have ever had. It certainly compares favorably with the experiences I've had at Yale and Harvard."

So revolutionary—It made news!

Results have been reported in newspapers, Time, Newsweek, Business Week and Esquire. Demonstrators have appeared on television with Jack Parr, Garry Moore and Art Linkletter.

How is this different from other courses?

Conventional rapid reading courses try for 450-600 words per minute. Most Reading Dynamics graduates can read 1,000-3,000 words per minute. Yet our students don't skip or skim. You read every single word. No machines are used. You use your hand as a pacer. And you will actually understand more, remember more and enjoy more of what you read.

YOU MUST IMPROVE OR YOUR MONEY BACK

We guarantee to increase the reading efficiency of each student AT LEAST 3 times with good comprehension. We will refund the entire tuition to any student, who, after completing minimum class and study requirements, does not at least triple his reading efficiency as measured by standardized testing.

COME AND SEE A FREE DEMONSTRATION OF THIS AMAZING NEW METHOD THAT IS GUARANTEED TO TRIPLE YOUR READING SPEED WITH GOOD COMPREHENSION!

Now — U. S. Savings Bonds Pay More Interest

4.15% when held to maturity

Higher interest on the Bonds you already own, too!

U.S. Savings Bonds are a better way to save than ever

Because now all Series E and Series H Bonds bought after December 1, 1965, will earn the new, higher interest rate of 4.15% when held to maturity. That's only 7 years for Series E — 9 months quicker than before. All H Bond interest checks will be larger beginning in June 1966.

And your outstanding bonds will earn more, too, from now on. So, you don't have to cash in your present Bonds to get the attractive new rate. Ask about buying Bonds where you work or bank. For America's future. And yours.

The U.S. Government does not pay for this advertisement. It is presented as a public service in cooperation with the Treasury Department and The Advertising Council.

"Today, none of us can remain aloof on the sidelines."

"Today, above all, is a time for all Americans to rededicate themselves to the spirit that animated the Minutemen of Concord—who serve as a symbol of the Savings Bond program. For today, as at the founding of our nation, it is freedom which is again at stake. Not all of us are called upon to fight in the jungles of Vietnam, but while our men are there, in the front lines of a distant land, none of us can remain aloof on the sidelines. We must all do our share—in every way we can—to support our men in Vietnam. One sure way is open to all Americans through the Savings Bond program."

In a photo finish involving four teams Seymour Levine and Al Skolnik emerged victorious in the March 8 duplicate bridge game. Only one point separated the four teams, as the combines of Ann and Tony Pisano and Adelaide and Ed Kaighn tied for second, one-half point behind the winners, and fourth place went to Lou and Lu-eille Lushine, another half-point behind. Next game: Friday, March 22.

Imagine how surprised Jack Maffay, 128 Northway, must have been when he spotted a very familiar face—his—in a picture of Boy Scouts that was on display in the Council Chambers at the library ground-breaking reception on Sunday. Jack, president of the Greenbelt Lions, is trying to figure out how old he was at the time.

A similar experience was enjoyed by Sonia Garin, 29 Lakeside, last summer while visiting the Israeli pavilion at Expo. On exhibit was a picture of a number of workers on an Israeli pioneer settlement and, as you probably have guessed by now, Sonia was among the group. The picture now attractively adorns a wall in the Garin's living room.

A very happy birthday to Sally Gough, 19-L Ridge, who celebrated her fourth birthday on Tuesday.

Barbara Skolnik, a sophomore at Connecticut College in New London, was named to the Dean's List for the first semester of the academic year 1967-68.

David O'Keeffe has been nominated for "Who's Who" in the East. O'Keeffe is studying for his doctorate in Physics at Catholic University.

It's a happy twelfth birthday tomorrow for Chris Patton, 51-J

The Police Blotter

Greenbelt's first automobile fatality of the year occurred when two cars were involved in a head-on collision on Glendale Rd. The driver of one car was killed. The other driver, who was on the wrong side of the median strip, was taken to the hospital in serious condition.

A Greenbelt officer kept a suspicious vehicle under observation and subsequently made an arrest. The suspect was turned over to the City of Hyattsville which had broadcast a look-out for an armed robber.

During the last two-week period, six juveniles have been charged with unauthorized use of a vehicle.

Each of three runaway girls have returned to their homes. In one case a 20-year-old was charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Three new police cars will be brought into service as soon as all equipment is installed.

A fugitive from the District of Columbia was apprehended at S. Klein's attempting to pass checks. He was turned over to District

SPAGHETTI SUPPER

The Annual Spaghetti supper of the Greenbelt Community Church will be held on Saturday, March 22, from 5:30 to 7 p.m. in the Church Social Hall. The community is invited. Tickets may be purchased through the Church Office or from a youth of the church.

Rummage Sale at JCC

The Sisterhood of Mishkan Torah (Jewish Community Center, Westway and Ridge) will hold its annual fund raising Rummage Sale on Sun., March 17, 3 - 9 p.m., Mon., March 18, 12 - 9 p.m., and Tues., March 19, 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.

Also at that store, a woman detective observed two women acting suspiciously. She asked them to return after they left the store, but they attacked her and then ran from the scene. Merchandise valued at $507 was recovered and a local look-out has been broadcast.

Motorists are reminded that the expiration date on Maryland tags is midnight March 31. Tags will

MAIL EARLY FOR TAX REFUND

In a special plea to Maryland and District of Columbia taxpayers today, IRS District Director Irving Machiz asked taxpayers expecting refunds on their 1967 tax returns to file them before April 5.

Mr. Machiz explained that processing work in the Service Center is now at the lowest ebb in the filing period.

Refunds on correctly prepared returns filed now will be issued within five weeks. Refund returns filed later may become intermingled with the traditional last minute avalanche of returns and processing might be unavoidably delayed.

He emphasized that experience has shown that taxpayers who prepare their returns under pressure of the April 15 deadline are most prone to make omissions or errors on their returns. Errors further delay receipt of refunds.
